

Direct Shipped items happen on occasion. The way you receive these is slightly different. This invoice will show in the system the day the invoice is created by US Foods instead of the day you received the product.

Once you receive the product, please go into the invoice and CHANGE the date to the date you are entering the product/received the product. This will then add it to the current inventory and current week's purchasing total.